

Robert Haley Asher Paintings

Peter Brueggeman, 2025

Robert Haley
Asher,
9 September 1945

Robert Haley Asher was born 28 March 1868, in California to parents Josephus Marian Asher, Sr. and Sarah H. Clark. Robert Asher's father was a nurseryman and County Assessor in San Diego.

Robert Asher first visited Palomar Mountain in 1901, and settled on Palomar Mountain in 1903. Asher lived in the Pauma Creek / State Park area on Palomar Mountain. The Bailey family was responsible for his interest in Palomar Mountain as he met Olie Bailey while in school in San Diego, and later in 1901, Theo Bailey brought him up on his first visit to Palomar Mountain. Asher stayed with the Bailey's, and then camped at Iron Springs. Asher homesteaded on Palomar Mountain, and ultimately had 160 acres.

Robert Asher took Maurice Braun's class in oil painting at Mesa Grande. Asher moved off Palomar Mountain in 1946 for health reasons. He moved to his sister's (Mrs. Josephine A. Vacher) place in El Cajon at the sharp bend in Fuerte Road on the east side of Mount Helix, where he slept in a tent in her backyard, and later a cabin he built. Asher continued to visit Palomar Mountain until 1951, and passed away in 25 April 1953 at age 85. He never married, and is buried in Mt. Hope Cemetery in San Diego. In his immediate family, Robert Asher was survived by his sister Mrs. Josephine A. Vacher of El Cajon, a sister Mrs. Dorcas Drown of Spring Valley, and a brother Josephus Asher of Mission Beach.

Robert Asher compiled a list of his paintings in 1939, which is at the end of this document. Some of the paintings below are identifiable in that list and are linked with his comments.

The family of Josephine Vacher, the brother of Robert Asher, holds many Asher paintings (via Jennifer Wassel). Three are owned by the family of Marian Weber (#2 and #28 via Gaylene Eisenach).
