A close-up photograph of a bicycle tire's sidewall. The tire has a black rubber tread with a cross-hatched pattern. A yellow label is affixed to the sidewall, featuring the brand name 'Clement' in a black script font and 'SUPER CONDOR' in a bold, blue, sans-serif font. The label is decorated with vertical stripes of green, white, and red at both ends. Below the yellow label, the brown, woven fabric of the tire's casing is visible, showing the stitching where it meets the rubber.
